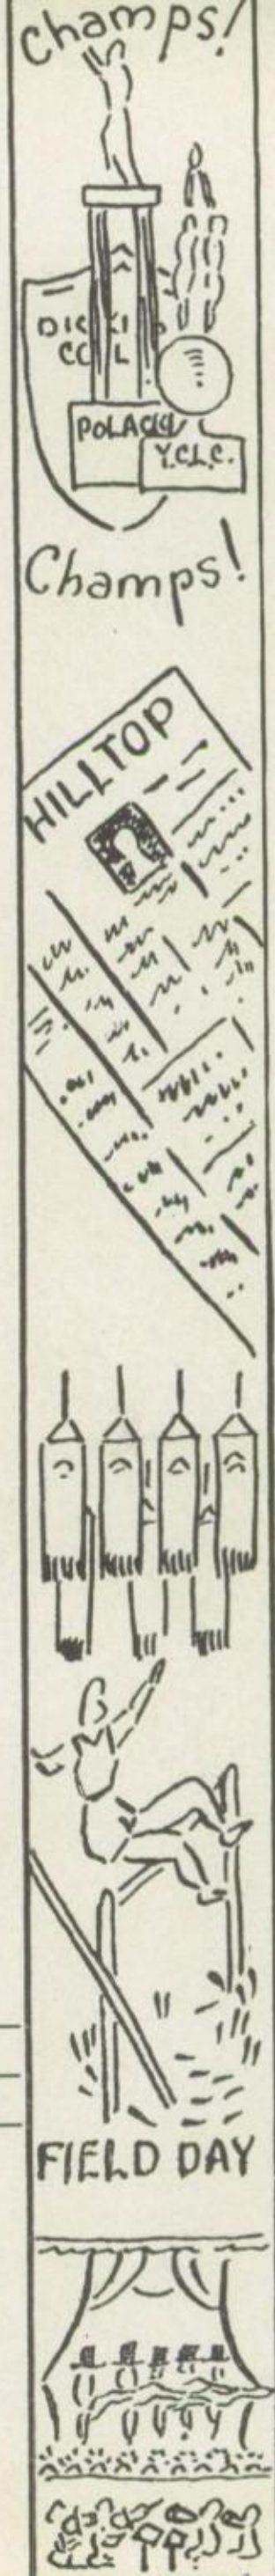
As the Day Begins

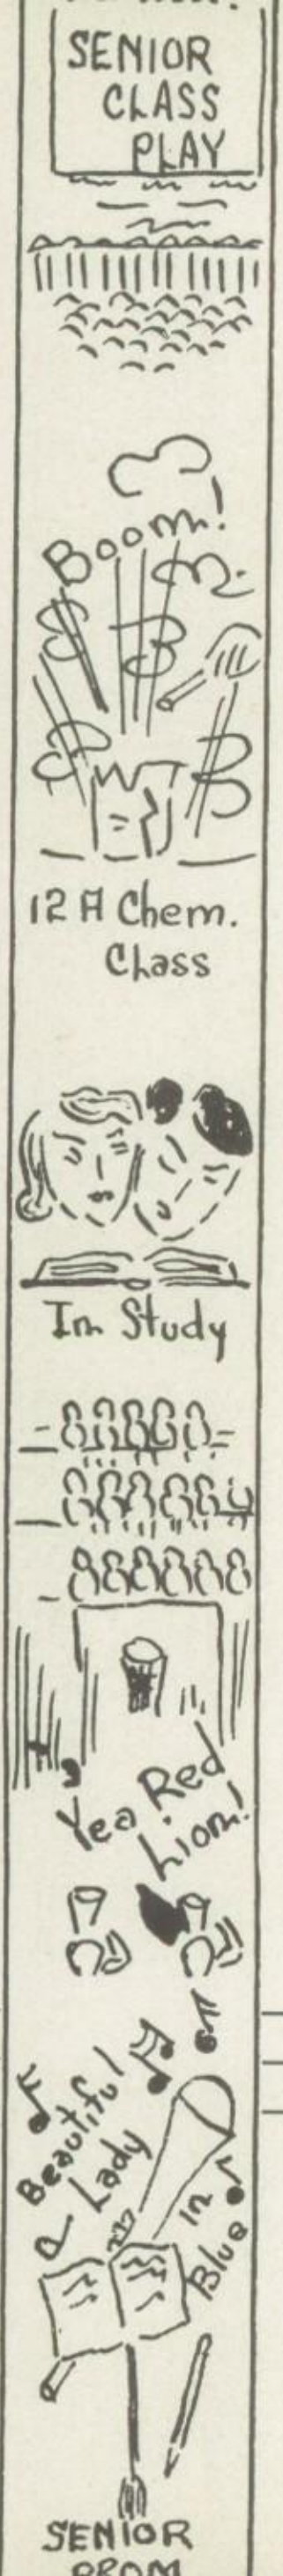
THE LION

A PORTRAYAL OF SCHOOL LIFE AND EVENTS . . . PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF THE JUNIOR-SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL.

RED LION, PA.

1936





FOREWORD

THE 1936 "Lion" attempts to portray a brief informal picture of student life and events, as we have seen them these years, in such a way that time cannot erase them. However such a presentation is indeed difficult. We fully realize that it is impossible to present our sincere affection and respectful admiration for our beloved school and its traditions. In the near future as time passes, we will want to treasurer these fond memories. Therefore may this "The Lion" of the Class of Nineteen Hundred Thirty-six recall to you the pleasant days at Red Lion High School and may you always find that there is no end to fond recollections.

We look for the last time, as undergraduates on the beauties and virtues that typify our Alma Mater.

—EDITOR.

CLAIR A. FRITS

HONORED in our desire to bestow homage on so gracious a friend, so unselfish an adviser, we pause to give utterance in this insufficient way, to the gratitude that speaks out of our hearts. We greet the most understanding of our friends, upon the completion of six years of devoted service.

To you, Mr. Clair Frits, we dedicate devotedly this volume of "The Lion."

Senior Write-ups and Activities

● DALE W. AKINS—"Akins"—"World! Here I come." Dale is one of those quiet likeable lads who do their work without much ado. Those of us who know him consider him a good friend and one whom we will loath to leave. Dale enjoys delving into the mysteries of electricity and he is already an efficient electrician and movie projectionist.

Sports Club 3; Apparatus Club 3, 4; Intra-Mural Sports 4; Glee Club 4.

● WILLIAM DONAHUE ALLEN — "Bill" — "Yeah." Woe unto all fur bearing animals within the hunting grounds of this promising back-woods man. The ambition and only desire of this tanned son of the woods is trapping. Well, lots of luck, "Bill" and good trapping.

Hi Y Club 1; Intra-Mural Sports 1, 2, 3, 4; Apparatus Club 4; Glee Club 4.

● WILBUR ANDERSON—"Wib"—"Ye Gods." "Wib" seems very shy and bashful to the student body but to his best friends he is a jovial, talkative fellow. He is an active member in intra-mural basketball. His best subject is problems of democracy. Undecided as to what to pursue as his life's work may he find success in his future, whatever it be.

Intra-Mural Sports 2, 3, 4; Hi Y Club 2; Sports Club 3; Apparatus Club 4.

● HARRY O. ANSTINE — "Tiny" — "Do you think you'll ever amount to much?" "Tiny" is a determined young man. He either succeeds or fails, mostly succeeds if he makes up his mind. He is involved in mostly everything that comes along, as he especially enjoys P. O. D. More luck to you in the future, Harry.

Sports Club 3; Apparatus Club 4; Intra-Mural Basketball 3, 4.

● LUCILLE MARGARET BECK—"Becky"—"Oh! My Goodness." "Becky" is one of our South Main Street girls and she seems to exhibit a special interest in this street for no apparent reason. Nevertheless, we wish her luck with this and her career, for she wishes to become a nurse after she has completed her studies at Red Lion.

Girls Intra-Mural Sports 1, 2, 3; Girl Reserve 2; Hiking Club 3; Shop Club 4; Glee Club 1, 3.

● MARGARET LUCRETIA BRENNEMAN—"Peggy" —"My Heavens." "Peggy" is another of the equestriennes who ride to Red Lion on "Old Faithful." She is a native of Winterstown but rumor reports that her heart's desire lies near Rinley. We wish you luck "Peg." May you "have and hold."

Typing Club 3; Girl Reserves 1, 2; Shop Club 4; Student Librarian 1, 4; Intra-Mural Sports 1, 2, 4; Girls' Athletic Association 4.

● GLADYS H. IRENE BRIGGS — "Squirt" — "Noooo Crap?" "Baloney." Gladys, a perfect example of pep, is a bouncing lively lass, interested in sports. She's a champ in mushball, paddle hand ball and as a cheer leader she's the "top." "Squirt" also is an excellent artist and actress. After graduating she intends to study art.

Posture Girl 2; "How Dare You" 3; "Third Floor Front" 4; Cheer leader 2, 3, 4; Intra-Mural Sports 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls Sports Club (Pres.) 4; Year Book Staff (Art Editor) 4; Hilltop Staff 4; All star teams 1, 2, 3, 4; Intra-Mural track and field meet 1, 2, 3, 4; Paddle and Handball (Mgr.) 4; Varsity Mushball 4; Mushball Mgr. 3; Swimming Club 4; Art club 1, 2, 3; "Bon Voyage" 4.

● NAOMI MARIE CRAWFORD—"Omy"—"Oh, My Goodness." Those who have "Omy's" friendship have something faithful and enduring, although most of her affections are given to an alumnus of the class of '34. She is especially noted for her smart dressing, habitual talking and participation in girls' sports. We have a "hunch" she will follow the career of a domestic servant. Lots of luck!

Glee Club 1, 2; "Ask the Professor" 2; Girl Reserve Club (Treas.) 2; Hiking Club 3; Needlecraft Club 4; Girls' Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Intra-Mural Sports 2, 3, 4.

● FERNE ISABELLE CURRAN — "Issie" — "For Heaven's sake." French is said to be a pretty language, and it is easy to believe when one hears "Issie" speak it. But this is only one item of the interesting picture "Issie" presents, when one considers her intensely blue eyes and pretty blush. There has been no trouble for this lass in making friends.

Student Librarian 1, 2; "Ask the Professor" 2; Girl Reserve 2, 4; (V. Pres.) Girls' Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 3, 4; Hiking Club (Mgr.) 3; "Third Floor Front" 4; Typing Club 3; Intra-Mural Sports 1, 2, 3, 4; "Bon Voyage" 4.

● ROBERT EDWARD DINSMORE — "Dinsmore" — "Get Out." "Dinny" is our quiet and efficient mathematician. He is one of the few of whom it may be said; "He is a quiet listener." After graduation he intends to devote his time and talent to agricultural pursuits. Well, "Dinny" here's hoping for the best, and please don't disappoint us.

Sports Club 3; Apparatus Club 4.

● CHARLES AARON DRUCK—"Charlie" "Bill"—"Aw Nertz." This is "Charlie," who with his curley hair and good looks is the heart breaker of the class. We all like Charlie, not only the girls but the whole class and we wish him much luck with his future career.

First Aid Club 1; Hi Y Club 2; Archery Club 3; Sports Club 4; Intra-Mural Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Football 3, 4; "Last Half Day in District School;" "Betty Lou" 1; "Bon Voyage" 4.

● QUINTON ELLIS—"Quinty" "Windsor"—"Yeah, but ——." If you want a good laugh, go to "Quinty." This is the attitude taken by many seniors because they are sure to find amusement where he is. However, he is not all foolishness because he can and does work hard and as a result is "well up in his class." Quinton wants to be a "Biology 'Prof'," and we are sure he will be a good one.

Jr. High Baseball 1; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 2, 3, 4; Varsity Club 2, 3, 4; Intra-Mural Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; National Athletic Scholarship Society 2, 3, 4; Inter-Class Track Meet 1; Baseball 4.

● PRESTON S. FLINCHBAUGH—"Pret"—"Vi sure" "Maa-hah." Rumors have it that "Pret" is one reason for the feminine turnout at our basketball games. Incidentally he is a basketball player of no mean ability for he is one of the "big" reasons why our "championship basketball five" had such an outstanding season. Do keep up the good work, "Pret."

First Aid Club 1; Varsity Football 3, 4; Varsity Basketball 4; Sr. Varsity 3; Varsity Club 3, 4; Sports Club 2; Intra-Mural 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 1; "Bon Voyage" 4.

● GLADYS IRENE FORRY—"Glady"—"Holy Mackeral." Who is this quiet and efficient little girl who is often seen about the corridors, but unlike many seniors, seldom heard? Right it's "Glady," one of the quietest and most studious girls in the class. We hope you always continue in that way, for remember Gladys, "Silence is Golden."

Girl Reserve 2; Typing Club 3; Needlecraft Club 4; Girls' Intra-Mural Sports 2, 3.

● ERNEST FREY—"Frey"—"I don't know." Frey, one of our leading "Commercials," aspires to be a bookkeeper. But on a side line he likes swimming and hunting. Frey and his Ford are practically inseperable, for everyday we can see Frey piloting his "Lizzie" through all traffic hazards to reach the "Hilltop."

Hilltop 2; Apparatus Club 3; Intra-Mural Sports 4; Journalism Club 4.

● THELMA VICTORIA GARNER — "Betz" — "Oh, dear." "Betz" may be the smallest girl in the class, but nevertheless she knows how to "parler francais." We can easily envision "Betz" before some class teaching them their "Be, Ba, Bo" so that they may "parlent francais aussi." Best of luck to you "Betz."

Girl Reserve 2; Sewing Club 3; Girls' Sports Club 4; Girls' Chorus 4; Intra-Mural Sports 2, 3.

● CLAUDE DENNIS GEESEY — "Denny" — "How would you like to take a dive?" If you want a thing done right let Dennis do it. "Denny" is one of the most versatile boys of the school, being a three letter man in athletics, a National Honor Society member, a member of various musical organizations and an actor of proven ability. The athletic or musical world is calling Dennis, and if there's anything like success he'll attain it.

Varsity Basketball 3, 4; Varsity Football 4; Varsity Baseball 2, 3; National Athletic Scholarship Society 2, 3, 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 2, 3, 4; "Ask the Professor" 2; "How Dare You" 3; Jr.-High Baseball 1; Sr. High J. V. 2; "Betty Lou" 1; Varsity Club 2, 3, 4; "Bon Voyage" 4; Varsity Track 2, 3, 4; Year Book Staff 4.

● HELEN MARIE GEHLY — "Helen" — "Oh Heck" "My Gosh." Helen is an industrious Commercial student. Whenever we see Helen we see a broad smile. Generally she is behind the typewriter doing some piece of work. She enjoys reading, typing and sewing. Helen is successful in almost everything she undertakes. Keep up the good work, Helen!

Student Librarian 2, 3; Hilltop Staff 4; Girls' Intra-Mural Sports 2, 3; Girl Reserve 2, 3.

● EDNA ROMAINE GLACKIN—"Eddie"—"Oh, gee!" "Eddie" is a quiet commercial lassie from Lower Chanceford, and is another of our hard working students. She is interested in hiking and swimming and in a few years some fortunate man will employ her as his private secretary.

Girl Reserve 2, 3; Sewing Club 3; Little Theatre Group 4; Student Librarian 4; Hiking Club 3.

● GLADYS MARIE GOHN—"Skipper"—"Holy nite." "Skipper" is a cheerful little lady, never disheartened and always ready to lend a hand. Gladys is a quiet but steady worker and after graduation she plans to become a demagogue to the future generations. We wish you lots of luck "Skipper" and may you always keep that bright and happy look.

Glee Club 2, 3; Girl Reserves 2; Needlecraft (V. Pres.) 4; Typing Club 3.

● LEROY WALTER GOHN—"Flash" "Gohny"—"Ah Geeze." "You gotta be a football hero to get along with a beautiful girl." And LeRoy is the hero and he's found the girl so everything's perfect. "Gohny" has succeeded in being the schools four letter man and his dreams of someday coaching championship teams should truthfully become a reality.

Varsity Football 3, 4; Varsity Basketball 3, 4; Varsity Baseball 3, 4; Varsity Track 3, 4; National Athletic Scholarship Society 3, 4; Intra-Mural Basketball and Track 1, 2; Varsity Club 3, 4; Betty Lou 1; Year Book Staff 4; Student Council 2; Glee Club 2, 4; Apparatus Club 2; Hi Y Club 1; "Bon Voyage" 4; Boys' Sport Club 4.

● FRED HENRY GOUKER—"Fred"—"If you do not at first succeed, try, try again!" Fred came to us several years ago from Gettysburg, and what is Gettysburg's loss is our gain, for who can dislike or harbor an ill feeling against him. Fred hopes to prepare for the ministry and we wish him God speed in his preparation for the world's most noble calling.

Intra-Mural Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Typing Club 3.

● WALTER H. GRIM—"Red"—"Think twice before you speak." Here comes our brown eyed, red-headed fiddler and friend. "Red's" been a faithful supporter of the orchestra and school activities. It has often come to our notice that he saves a seat in the library, right next to him, we wonder for whom. Our guess is you'll see if you look under the R's of the Senior Class.

Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Intra-Mural Basketball 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 4; Apparatus Club 3, 4; Intra-Class Track Meet 1; York County Field Meet 3.

● IRENE GROVE—"Ereny"—"Holy-e-e-e." Quiet, reserved, intelligent and dependable, that's Irene. She took her place among the leaders of our class by gaining membership to the National Honor Society. She was one of the outstanding members of the Needlecraft Club being very efficient in this type of work.

"Ask the Professor" 2; Class Secretary 4; Girl Reserve (Sec.) 2; Girls' Sport Club 3; Needlecraft Club (Pres.) 4; Girls' Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 3.

● MYRTLE ELIZABETH GROVE — "Myrt" — "Oh Heck." "Myrt" is the commercial section's sport girl. She likes all sports and plays them well. After school she intends to act in the capacity of secretary to some man who needs an optimistic girl to ornament his office.

Girls' Intra-Mural Sports 3, 4; Girls' Sport Club 4; Girls' Athletic Association 4; Hiking Club 3.

● VIVIAN ELIZABETH GROVE — "Viddy" — "For Land's Sake." "Viddy" is a curly headed blond who arrives every morning on the Toonerville Trolley from Windsor. Whenever she and Marie get together, their tongues are sure to wag. "Viddy" we expect to find you in some office in the near future, and lots of luck.

Girl Reserve 2, 3, 4; Intra-Mural Sports 3; Student Librarian 2, 3.

● EARLE E. HARTMAN, JR. — "B.S." "Pressey" "Bluff"—"Geeze." A toast to Hartman, who for four years guided the destiny of the class of '36 as their president. Earle, our most popular boy and leading actor, will always be remembered for his ability as a "speech maker." Although noted for his ability to bluff he was always able to rise to the occasion when the need arose. We feel sure he will talk as well as work his way to success in his life's pursuit.

Class President 1, 2, 3, 4; Sr. High Basketball Mgr. 4; Hilltop Staff 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Band 2, 3; Hi Y (Pres.) 1; National Honor Society 4; National Athletic Scholarship Society 4; Stage Crew 1, 2, 3, 4; "How Dare You" 3; "Third Floor Front" 4; Varsity Club 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3; Student Council 2, 3.

● MARIE HEAPS—"Heaps"—"Oh! My!" Quiet, gentle and kind describes Marie perfectly. Everyone of us will miss the sight of her ford journeying to school every morning. Many of us have admired her because she seems to find so much pleasure doing her work. She has already decided to enter college and study to become a teacher. Success will be hers if she works as hard as she did in high school.

Basketball 1; Girls' Chorus 4; Needlecraft Club 4; Hiking Club 3.

● KENNETH ARLINGTON HEINDEL — "Butch" "Kenny"—"Hi Ya Boy." "Oh, it don't mean a thing if it ain't got that swing!" And where "Kenny" draws his nimble fingers over the guitar the music really swings. Possessing a humorous nature, known and liked by everyone "Butch" hopes to be a guitarist in some great dance band.

Typing Club 3; Little Theatre Club 4; "Betty Lou" 2; Intra-Mural Sports 2, 4; Dance Orchestra 3; Band 4; Glee Club 4; "Bon Voyage" 4.

● ALLEN E. HENRY — "Al" — "Hi Ya Toots." "I would a traveler be" quotes Allen, who daily gains experience by walking to school from his residence at Cape Horn. Having a keen interest in all sports "Al" becomes a participant at all possible opportunities. Together with his inseperable brother, Cletus, Allen will have an interesting future.

Intra-Mural Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4.

● NORA ALMEDA HENRY—"Daffy"—"Who wants to know?" "Is that so!" Almeda, an excellent typist and commercial student has rendered much service to our school paper and year book. Her aim in life is to become "somebody's stenog." We wish you much success, "Daffy."

Pres. of Class 1, 2; "Bon Voyage" 4.

● DONALD MERVIN WARNER—"Don"—"My gosh George." A first class pianist, is "Don," our class musician. The Greeks may have had a word for "Don's" musical talent, but we haven't. Well, anyway, it's "Colossal" to say the least. He also takes great pleasure in racing up and down the street in his "maroon colored limousine."

Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 3, 4; "Betty Lou" 1; Debating Club 4; Sports Club 3; Hi-Y Club 1; "Ask The Professor" 2; "Bon Voyage" 4.

● EVELYN IRENE WOLFGANG — "Flick" — "Holy Mud" "Gee whiz jump." "Secretaries here and secretaries there," and so many ones to pick from. Yes indeed, in Evelyn we have another ambitious secretary. "Flick" is always blushing and laughing and she has been labeled as a "real sport" by her many friends. In spite of her keen secretarial determination the horoscope reveals another blushing bride.

Girl Reserves 2, 3; Girls' Shop Club 4; Student Librarian 3.

● JEAN ANN ZARFOS—"Jean Ann"—"My Fran." This girl we call Jean Ann is an attractive tiny "Miss" with golden curls from Georgia. Although very quiet she has great ambitions. Jean hopes to own her own Interior Decorating Establishment in New York City some day. "Please don't disappoint us Jean!"

Girl Reserves Club 2, 4; Girls' Athletic Association 2, 3, 4; Student Librarian 2, 3, 4; Art Club 3; Intra-Mural Sports 1, 2, 3, 4; Hiking Club 2; Swimming Club 4.

HILLTOP

THE Hilltop

THE school paper is appropriately named "The Hilltop." The semi-monthly publication is a record of events and activities which occur in the school. It is a bi-weekly publication written and edited by a staff of thirty-two students, aided by a business staff of seven members and two faculty advisers.

The Hilltop is a member of four State and National Scholastic Press Associations and is an outstanding publication of exceptionally high literary merit.

The distribution of the Hilltop is an event eagerly anticipated and greatly welcomed by all students for in it we find a true and detailed account of actual school life.

Of special interest to members of the staff are the spring and fall press conferences, which are held annually.

At these meetings outstanding speakers in the field of journalism address the students. In addition to the general session, sectional meetings are held in which the students have an opportunity to discuss the problems relative to their own school publication.

The Hilltop Staff also sponsors social activities on different occasions throughout the year.

Members of the staff are:

The Lion

THE LION," the annual publication of the senior class, is edited and published by a staff of seniors with a few selected Juniors and a faculty adviser. The theme of this year's book is "Student Life" and it is the aim of the staff to depict detailed and intimate views of life, activities, and people about the school. It is the object of "The Lion" to be a reminder and Chronicle of the years spent in Red Lion High School.

National Scholastic Honor Society

TO be elected to the National Scholastic Honor Society is the culmination of any student's career. One of the things which make this honor enviable is the variety of requirements to become elected. Before being considered a candidate the student must rank in the upper third of his class scholastically, and then he is rated upon BRAINS plus brawn." What a combination. These three words explain the requirements for admission to the National Athletic Scholarship Society. A person, to be eligible for membership, must have earned his varsity letter in one of the four major sports of the school, and have a scholastic rating above the average of the institution.

Girl Reserves

"To find and give the best" is the slogan of the Girl Reserve organization in the Junior-Senior High School. These clubs are affiliated with the Young Women's Christian Association and have as their purpose "to face life squarely." The activities of the clubs are built around the blue triangle whose sides represent body, mind, and spirit. The ultimate goal in the minds of the club members is to develop themselves in these three areas to become well-rounded individuals. Included during 1935-36 were the following activities: recognition service, pot-luck supper, handcraft, discussions, parties, week-end at Camp, Christmas baskets for needy families and a Girl Reserve Conference.

At present there are four Girl Reserve Clubs in the school with a total membership of 150 girls. The officers of the clubs are:

four points by the committee of teachers, who elect the members. These four points are character, scholarship, leadership and service.

Another limitation which makes it highly selective to belong to the National Scholastic Honor Society is the small percentage who may belong, for only five per cent of the junior class and fifteen per cent of the senior class may be elected members.

Those persons chosen to represent the senior class are: Dennis Geesey, Irene Grove, Almeda Henry, Earle E. Hartman, Jr., Joseph A. Knaus, Virginia Roseman, Mary Schum, Marie Sechrist, William Snyder, Adella Snyder, Edward Thompson, Fred Thompson, Betty Warner.

The members from the junior class are: Janet Holtzinger, Henry Seitz, Ferne Poet, Preston Eisensmith, Hilda Ferree, Mary Barteaux.

MUSIC

ORGANIZATIONS

Musical Organizations

OFT in the morning a melodious sound strikes the ear of any students ambitious enough to appear at school at an early hour. These sounds emanate from the talented throats of the glee club members.

The organization is divided into the mixed glee club and the girls' chorus. Plans have been made to organize still another vocal assembly, a male chorus.

During the past year the glee clubs sang in the various churches in the town and presented a short concert between acts of the Junior Class play.

The members include: Geraldine Laucks, Louise Jamison, Thelma Kinard, Betty Warner, Hilda Ferree, Adella Snyder, Elaine Grove, Almeda Henry, Bonnie Jean Hibbs, Virginia Smith, Janet Holtzinger, Lena Snyder, Charlotte Young, Arlene Keemer, Virginia Kohler, Portia Ritz, Ruth Barshinger, Ruth Shenberger, Evelyn Keener, Jean Strawbridge, Celia Kreidler, Ferne Poet, Pauline Seegar, Theda Harris, Anna Rider, Charlotte Wakely, Arlene Smith, Isabelle Curran, Dale Murphy, Hugh Jennings, Richard Hively, Preston Eisensmith, Ernest Dunnick, Fred Thompson, Donald Kinard, Vernon Spurley, Charles Keeports, Thomas Meads, William Flinchbaugh, Dennis Geesey, Jay Smith, Joseph Knaus, Philip Laucks, James Sechrist, Arthur Young, Kenneth Heindel, Preston Riddle, Donald Warner, Jean Grim, Audrey Miller, James Smith, Walter Grim, Raymond Roth, Gerald Laucks, Earl Smith, William Douglas, Charles Bailey, Theodore Winter, and Mary Barteaux, Pianist.

The excellent work of the musical organizations was demonstrated on the 24th and 25th of April when they presented a musical comedy entitled "Bon Voyage."

The school orchestra has always been noted for the fine concerts which it presents at the school plays. The orchestra furnished the entertainment at all school plays and meetings, and it again competed in the annual field meet held at Red Lion.

Probably in the near future, a dance orchestra will be formed from the school orchestra, to provide music and entertainment at the school parties.

The school band which is now in its third year, provides the sparkle, pep, and music at the athletic events. The band under the leadership of Mr. Gerald Woerner and assisted by Leo, the school's pet lion, presented a fine exhibition of military and drill routines, upon the gridiron between halves.

DRAMATICS

THE JUNIOR PLAY

"How Dare You"

"How Dare You" by Walt Spence, was the production presented by the class of '36 as Juniors. It enjoyed such success that it played three nights in order to accommodate the public. Those participating in its production and those witnessing its presentation will always remember its clever plot and the outstanding portrayals taken by Earle Hartman, as an understanding doctor; Adella Snyder, frivilous wife; Betty Warner, heroine; Dennis Geesey, hero and Fred Thompson, a young lad out to make good. The cast still recalls the readiness with which Earle Hartman and Donald Kinard learned their "lines" and the antics caused by these two at practices. Miss Estella Hoffman will be remembered for her patience and jovial manner during the rehearsals which she so capably directed. Other classmates who contributed to its success as characters were: Sylvan Jacobs, Gladys Briggs, Marie Sechrist, Faye Stein, William Snyder, and Lawrence Sprenkle.

THE SENIOR PLAY

"Third Floor Front"

"W. C. Fields incognito!" These were the remarks made concerning Earle Hartman's remarkable impersonation of a hen-pecked husband in "Third Floor Front," the senior play of the class of '36. Virginia Roseman also gave an unforgetable characterization in the role of Mrs. Wilks, Earle Hartman's wife, who was responsible for his hen-pecked condition. Joseph Knaus and Adella Snyder made a grand couple in their parts as male and female leads respectively.

The play was well received by two capacity houses in the municipal building. Others who gave interesting portrayals were Donald Kinard, William Snyder, Anne Rider, Marie Sechrist, Isabelle Curran, Charles Keeports, Marie Quigley and Gladys Briggs.

To Miss Wilma Stern, who so capably directed the play, several members of the cast wish to take this opportunity to express their apologies for eating all the food which was to be used in the "dinner scene," before practice began. We appreciate her patience and understanding nature.

CAPT. KNAUS MEETS OPPONENT

THE Football Team

Red Lion High's 1935 gridiron forces, playing but their second season of football, had a rather decorous season, annexing two victories against five defeats. Coach Nitchkey found difficulty in selecting a clicking combination and the starting eleven showed numerous changes. The season opened with impressive victories over Delta and New Freedom when the machine suddenly struck a snag and lost the remaining five engagements. The height of the season was reached when the Lion's held Hanover's powerful aggregation, who had trounced the Gold and Black 50–0 last year, to a 0–13 score. The worst defeat recorded was at the hands of the West York "Bulldogs," who scored a 49–0 triumph. The team was ably captained by Joseph A. Knaus. The season records are as follows:

Red Lion—24	Delta— 6
Red Lion—50	New Freedom— 0
Red Lion— 6	York High Reserves—14
Red Lion— 0	Elizabethtown—32
Red Lion— 0	Biglerville—12

Basketball

THE Gold and Black's 1935-1936 "quintet" brilliantly engraved their names on the annals of Red Lion High School basketball history as they blazed to a new high in cage competition with twenty-two victories in twenty-four starts. In early season the quintet lost two games, namely Dallastown and Hanover, and after this duo of setbacks they went on a whirlwind victory march of sixteen straight triumphs. The Lions brought the York County Inter-scholastic League Championship back to their Alma Mater after a lapse of three years, having last captured the title in the 1932-1933 season. Playing a split season the Gold and Black won both halves of the league schedule. Forced to engage in a playoff with Glen Rock for the first half championship, both teams having won eight games against one defeat, the Gold and Black defeated the Red and White 23–18. Experiencing little difficulty in the second half, the Lions won nine straight games to annex the League title, hands down. The climax of the season was reached during the Dickinson College Inter-scholastic Tournament, when the Lions defeated Hanover 31–30, Swatara Township 22–21 and Lykens 25–23 to win the tournament and add further laurels to a most successful season.

GIRLS' INTRA-MURAL SPORTS

Girls' Sports

AT a meeting held September 12, 1935 of the Girls' Athletic Association, the following officers were elected to serve in the ensuing year: President—Kathryn Lentz, Vice President—Charlotte Young, and Secretary—Delores Hengle.

Managers chosen by Coach Blew and the newly elected officers were: Mushball—Janice Minnich, Basketball—Hilda Ferree, Volleyball — Virginia Fake, Paddle Hand Ball—Gladys Briggs, Deck Tennis—Betty Meads, Horseshoes — Janet Holtzinger, Tennis—Marie Quigley, Hiking & Dancing —Ferne Poet, Swimming & Horseback Riding—Rachael Grim, Winter Sports—Zora Miller, Camping, roller skating and bicycling—Charlotte Reachard.

To become a member of this association one must earn sixty-five points.

One hundred fifty points are required for the first letter, three hundred and twenty-five points for the second and four hundred and seventy-five points for a third letter.

Strong rivalry between the two senior basketball teams, — the Jumbo's and the Mumbo's, waxed fierce during a thrilling season. This was evident with the Jumbo's winning 11 of 12 games played.

Full attendance at the games and class cheering furnished no end of excitement to the players as they battled enthusiastically for the coveted honor of leader in the season's tussle. "Gladys" Briggs, our dashing and winsome "Mumbo" captain offered keen competition to the "Jumbo" team led by "Kas" Lentz, the tall blonde guard.

The "Jumbo's" champion all star team, consisted of: Captain—Kathryn Lentz, forwards—Adella Snyder, Janice Minnich, Pauline Seegar and guards — Margaret Uffelman, Isabelle Curran.

Captain Briggs and her fighting team included: Naomi Crawford, Anne Rider, Margaret Brenneman, Irene Grove and Myrtle Grove.

Under the expert coaching of Marion Blew the mushball teams experienced an exciting season also. Again Captain Lentz led her team to victory. The "gang" included Janice Minnich, Pauline Seegar, Isabelle Curran, Frieda Shaull, Adella Snyder and Helen Miller.

Victories in the badminton tournament were registered by: Elsie Fake, Virginia Fake, Zora Miller, and Charlotte Reachard.

This year a swimming team was organized and those "mermaids" could be seen every Monday night at the Y. W. C. A. enjoying their "beloved" sport.

With the approach of Spring and fair weather tennis balls were seen flying here and there, and a keen spirit of competition was sensed in the air. And why not, because we were certain that with manager, Marie Quigley, we would reach the top triumphfully.

To the captains of the various sports much credit and praise is due for their inspiring example and leadership displayed throughout the season. We admire and appreciate the untiring efforts of our coach and sports directress, Miss Marion Blew, on her readiness to encourage the girls and stir them on to competition.

Baseball

EXPERIENCING difficulty in holding practices, because of the inclement weather, Red Lion High's baseball team finally put in their belated appearance, in the middle of April. The team at the date of this writing has played but three games; losing to North York 5–4 and to New Freedom 9–4 the team finally hit its expected stride and defeated their strong arch-rivals, Dallastown High, by a 5–4 score and New Freedom by a 14–8 count. Having a nucleus of six players remaining from last years' squad, namely Ellis, Captain of the '36 nine, Thompson, Warner, I. Trout, Gohn and Fake, the team has a strong starting combination and should finish high in the league standings.

The members of the team are as follows: Pitchers—Fake, I. Trout, Kohler and Sentz; Infielders—Capt. Ellis, Herbst, Slenker, E. Thompson, Young and Schoff; Outfielders—Gohn, Majewski, L. Miller and Day; Catchers—R. Warner and Meads.

Track

FACING the hardest schedule of any track and field team in the history of Red Lion High School this year's spikemen, at the time of this writing are practicing diligently to uphold the laurels of their Alma Mater on the cinder path. The team has already competed in the Penn Relays and the Shippensburg State Teachers' College invitation track and field meet and made a rather favorable showing. However the stiffest part of the program is yet to come as the York County, Harrisburg District 3 and possibly one other meet appear on the schedule. The captain of this year's squad is Sylvan Jacobs, sprinter and broad jumper. The members of the team are as follows: Broad jump, Jacobs and Downs; ½ mile run, McCleary and Knaus; High jump, Kinard and Mitzel; Shot put, Geesey and Mitzel; Discus, Geesey and Smith; 100 yard dash, Hall and Downs; 440, Gohn and Jacobs; Relay, Gohn, Jacobs, Fake and Hall.

TO HARVEY J. BECKER

We, the members, of the Lion Staff wish to thank Mr. Becker for the help and advice which he has so willingly given to us. Without his cooperation and planning we would not have been able to accomplish the enormous task which confronted us.
